Mission News

Last year one of the recipients of the Lenten Mission Collection was St. Anthony's Parish in Neopit, WI. St. Anthony's is one of the parishes on the Menominee Indian Reservation. Besides meeting the spiritual needs of the members, St. Anthony's also helps with physical and social needs. The parish operates a food pantry and has an emergency fund to help those having a hard time making ends meet. The emergency fund distributes about $1000 a month. Fr. David Kiefer is the pastor of St. Anthony's and he tells us that our donation to their emergency fund was most appreciated. We also collected groceries during May and October for their food pantry. Doloras Quast is the pantry coordinator and she writes, "Your recent donation of boxes of food to St. Anthony's Food Pantry is so very much appreciated."

A portion of this year's Lenten Mission Collection will again go to support St. Anthony's Emergency Fund. The Mission Committee contacts are Terri Bourassa 731-6482 and Kathy Kleckner 738-0632.

Catholic Queries

Q. A co-worker who attends what he calls a "Bible believing church" constantly questions the Catholic practice of infant baptism. He cites the fact that Jesus was baptized as an adult (Matthew 3:13, Mark 1:9, Luke 3:21), as well as passages such as Acts 2:38 ("Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit"). How might I respond to him? (Part 4 of 4)

A. Each of the three previous columns quoted passages of Sacred Scripture that support the practice of infant baptism. However, a fact that "Bible believing" churchgoers either do not know, or else do know but choose to ignore, is that there was no Bible until approximately 400 AD, when Councils at Hippo and Carthage, guided by the Holy Spirit, determined the official canon of Sacred Scripture.

Of course, this begs the question "What Baptismal practices were followed by the earliest generations of Christians, who had no Sacred Scripture, but only Sacred (Apostolic) Tradition, to use as their guide?" That question can be answered unequivocally by examining the writings of the early Fathers of the Church, several of whom are quoted below.

"Baptize first the children, and if they can speak for themselves let them do so. Otherwise, let their parents or other relatives speak for them." (St. Hippolytus, The Apostolic Tradition, 215 AD)

"The Church received from the Apostles the tradition of giving Baptism even to infants. The Apostles, to whom were committed the secrets of the divine sacraments, knew there are in everyone innate strains of sin, which must be washed away through water and the Spirit." (Origen, Commentaries on Romans 5:9, 248 AD)

"Do you have an infant child? Allow sin no opportunity; rather, let the infant be sanctified from childhood. From his most tender age let him be consecrated by the Spirit." (St. Gregory of Nazianz, Oration on Holy Baptism, 388 AD)

"And if any one seek for divine authority in this matter, though what is held by the whole Church, and that not as instituted by Councils, but as a matter of invariable custom, is rightly held to have been handed down by Apostolic authority, still we can form a true conjecture of the value of the sacrament of Baptism in the case of infants, from the parallel of circumcision...Therefore, when others take the vows for them, that the celebration of the sacrament may be complete in their behalf, it is unquestionably of avail for their dedication to God, because they cannot answer for themselves." (St. Augustine, On Baptism, Against the Donatists, 400 AD)

This weekly column is presented by the St. Bernadette Adult Enrichment Committee. If you would like to submit a question of your own, please send it via e-mail to dgeenen@sbcglobal.net (subject line: Catholic Queries), or via surface mail to 2208 S. Horizon Drive, Appleton, WI, 54915.

Reflection Corner

In the old Walt Kelly comic strip "Pogo" every time things would get to be too much for the main characters you could bet on seeing the "Gone fishin'" sign posted on a nearby tree. It was a literary device that Kelly used, to bring a break to the previous action and change the story line. In a way, Luke does the same thing in Sunday's Gospel. After the press of the crowds, Jesus convinces Simon to let him teach from the boat. Then he tells him to head out into deep water to fish. We've changed the subject from Jesus healing and preaching. Suddenly, we've "Gone fishin'," and while initially that's what is literally happening, it doesn't stay that way for long. It's a setup for the greater point of the story: "From now on you will be catching men."

It's not just Simon and the sons of Zebedee that get led into this convenient little scenario. Gospels are not just quaint stories. They are good news for us as well. Jesus gets into life with us, much like he got into Simon's boat. He tells us to go out a little farther, that is, to stretch our faith a little more. And even when we want to give up ("we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing") he tells us to cast into the deep. Trusting in him, we find that wondrous things happen as we witness to the meaning of Jesus in our lives. In the end, the example of our faith is to lead others to Jesus. That's where instead of fish, we'll be catching men and women.

It wouldn't be the worst thing in the world if we hung a little "Gone fishin'" sign somewhere where we would see it every day, as long as we remember that our faith is the net, and from now on we're out there fishing to bring others to Christ.

Ash Wednesday

Lent is 40 days of responding in responding God's Love and care. During Lent we keep asking ourselves this question: How much does the Lord's Spirit within me affect and shape my life? Come join us on Ash Wednesday, February 17th at 9:00 am or 6:45 pm and begin the journey into a deeper interior life with God.

The Little Black & Purple Books

The Little Black Book is your companion for Lent. It's an old-fashioned "vade mecum" (pronounced vahday maykum). That's Latin for "travel with me" and described a book that was a constant companion—a book of prayers for traveling priests, or a handbook for quick reference—something you could take with you anywhere.

The Little Black Book travels easily in your pocket, purse, or glove compartment. The goal is to find six minutes of quiet time every day for the next 50 days to walk through this book a page at a time.

We also have "The Little Purple Book" for children. This publication has daily activities for children they can enjoy throughout Lent. We have a limited supply of Purple Books, so don't delay.

The books can be purchased for $1.00 each and are available in the narthex next to the sacristy. Please deposit your money in the marked collection box next to The Little Black Books. Thank you!

Church Talks Adult Education

The Church Talks adult education series will begin again in Lent. We will have six sessions discussing based on the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults (USCCA). We will cover part one on the Creed during the sessions. The Church Talks will take place on Thursday evenings from 6:30 - 8:30 pm February 17, 25, March 4, 11, 18, 25. You can plan to attend one, some or all of the sessions. There will also be a session during the Easter season that will take a look at the second part of the USCCA. If you are interested or have questions please contact Peter Gagnon at 734-7502.

Wednesday Evening Mass During Lent

Lent is not mission impossible. And it isn't a mystery season. The prescription for observing Lent is simple and clear: give alms without fanfare, pray privately, serve the poor and fast cheerfully. Please join us in church every Wednesday during Lent at 5:15 pm for Mass. Hope to see you there!

God calling!

As you think about your future, what you are going to do with your life, have you thought about what you will BE? Could God be calling you to be a priest? A religious sister or brother? Why not? IT IS POSSIBLE! Talk about it with Father or email Sister Lucille Flores at ssmbjoy@sbcglobal.net.

Ladies Night Out Spring Fundraiser

As you know, for the past two years the men of our parish have had their successful 'Men's Steak & Ale Fundraiser', that's right, for men only. Well now it's our turn! So move aside boys! This one's for the girls! We are excited to announce our first ever Spring event for 'women only' called 'A Dazzling Ladies Night Out' to be held on Thursday, April 15, 2010. This event is an evening of pampering the ladies and includes wine, appetizers, desserts and numerous vendors to indulge the ladies in a fun-filled evening out.

We are currently looking for vendors for this event who are women of our parish who own the following businesses: caterers, restaurant owners, wine distributors, florists, travel agents, jewelers, tanning salons, hair stylists, massage therapists, Pampered Chef rep, Mary Kay or other cosmetic rep, manicurist, pedicurist, reflexology specialist, or any other business that is directly geared toward treating the ladies. We want to accommodate the businesses our parishioners own first, so if you'd like to participate, please call Patty Eichhorst (739-4157) or Mary Spaay (428-6714) by Monday February 22nd. Ladies - look no further - this is one night of fun and pampering you don't want to miss! So pick up your phone and call your family and BFF's to mark April 15th in your calendars!!!
