PRAYER FOR THE FAMILY

Lord God, from you every family in Heaven and on earth takes its name.

Father, you are Love and Life.

Through your Son, Jesus Christ, born of woman, and through the Holy Spirit, fountain of divine charity, grant that every family on earth may become for each successive generation a true shrine of life and love.

Grant that your grace may guide the thoughts and actions of husbands and wives for the good of their families and all the families in the world.

Grant that the young may find in the family solid support for their human dignity and for their growth in truth and love.

Grant that love, strengthened by the grace of the Sacrament of Marriage, may prove mightier than all the weakness and trials through which our families sometimes pass.

Through the intercession of the Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that the Church may fruitfully carry out her worldwide mission in the family and through the family.

Through Christ our Lord, Who is the Way, the Truth and the Life for ever and ever. Amen.

Pope John Paul II.

Catholic Queries

Q. Each year on November 1, the Roman Catholic Church celebrates the Feast of All Saints. How did this feast day originate?

A. This topic is covered by the superb Catholic Encyclopedia web site at www.newadvent.org/cathen, from which the corresponding entry is quoted in its entirety below.

"Solemnity celebrated on the first of November. It is instituted to honor all the saints, known and unknown, and, according to Urban IV, to supply any deficiencies in the faithful's celebration of saints' feasts during the year.

In the early days the Christians were accustomed to solemnize the anniversary of a martyr's death for Christ at the place of martyrdom. In the fourth century, neighboring dioceses began to interchange feasts, to transfer relics, to divide them, and to join in a common feast; as is shown by the invitation of St. Basil of Caesarea (397) to the bishops of the province of Pontus. Frequently groups of martyrs suffered on the same day, which naturally led to a joint commemoration.

In the persecution of Diocletian the number of martyrs became so great that a separate day could not be assigned to each. But the Church, feeling that every martyr should be venerated, appointed a common day for all. The first trace of this we find in Antioch on the Sunday after Pentecost. We also find mention of a common day in a sermon of St. Ephrem the Syrian (373), and in the 74th homily of St. John Chrysostom (407).

At first only martyrs and St. John the Baptist were honored by a special day. Other saints were added gradually, and increased in number when a regular process of canonization was established; still, as early as 411 there is in the Chaldean Calendar a 'Commemoratio Confessorum' for the Friday after Easter.

In the West Boniface IV, 13 May, 609, or 610, consecrated the Pantheon in Rome to the Blessed Virgin and all the martyrs, ordering an anniversary. Gregory III (731-741) consecrated a chapel in the Basilica of St. Peter to all the saints and fixed the anniversary for 1 November. A basilica of the Apostles already existed in Rome, and its dedication was annually remembered on 1 May. Gregory IV (827-844) extended the celebration on 1 November to the entire Church. The vigil seems to have been held as early as the feast itself. The octave was added by Sixtus IV (1471-84)."

This weekly column is presented by the St. Bernadette Parish Adult Enrichment Committee. If you would like to submit a question of your own, please send it via e-mail to dgeenen@sbcglobal.net (subject line: Catholic Queries).

*"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
...Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God." - Mt 5: 3, 9*

Reflection Corner

Today's Gospel reading from Matthew is Jesus' gift of the beatitudes. They are gifts because the word beatitude means happiness or blessedness. In detailing those who would receive such a gift, Jesus is revealing who really are saints among us: the poor in spirit, the sad, the meek, the hungry and thirsty, the merciful, the pure of heart, the peacemakers, and the persecuted. Each of these saints desires joy and happiness for all they encounter. In all needs, we find blessedness in Jesus Christ.

We are taught in the Catechism of the Catholic Church that the church is "a communion of saints." This expression is defined first and foremost in the Eucharist, by which the faithful are united in one body. It also refers to all who have suffered in the name of Christ to better our lives (CCC 960-961). Today is the feast of All Saints, in which we recognize and give thanks for those who have gone before us preserving and promoting Christianity, some having paid the ultimate sacrifice for their beliefs. We are called to be saints for today. Will we answer?

Eucharistic Adoration - November 6th

The hurriedness of the world we live in allows us no time to sit, think, or pray. The Lord knows this. He wants us to come to Him, talk to Him, be with Him and pray to Him. Take your cares and be close to Him in Eucharistic Adoration on the first Friday of each month. Our next Adoration will begin after the 9:00 am Mass on November 6th and will end with the Benediction at 4:00 pm. The Holy Father has declared this year The Year of the Priest. We ask that you direct some of your prayers for greater response to the invitation of vocations to the priesthood. Stay ten minutes or as long as you want, but make time to be with Him. Every second spent in His presence will enrich your life. Watch for the sign up board, which will be located in the narthex of church, or just pop in to visit when you can. Take time to slow down and to listen to His voice, "Come, I am waiting for you".

- Quotable Quotes -

"A good shepherd, a pastor after God's heart, is the greatest treasure which the good Lord can grant to a parish, and one of the most precious gifts of divine mercy."
